

QUESTIONING GOD?

A Discussion Guide for Seekers & Skeptics

Your Biggest Take-Aways

What in this chapter was most eye-opening or helpful to you?

A Different Perspective

Perhaps you disagreed with some of what you read. If so, where did you find yourself holding a different or opposing perspective?

Seeing the Big Picture

Do all of the “Key Points” of the chapter make sense to you? If not, which points are confusing to you?

A Picture Is Worth a Thousand Words

Where there any illustrations in the chapter that you found helpful in understanding the author's point?

Putting Yourself in Their Shoes

You may be persuaded by some of what you read, but you may be concerned that if you gave the chapter to a friend they would have many questions and objections. What do you think those questions and objections would be?

Moving the Meter

We are all still learning. So, how would you have answered the question of this chapter before you read the book? And how would you answer it now?